

Stay up-to-date with Council e-Newsletter

In an effort to provide more information directly to our residents Council is encouraging residents to subscribe to the e-newsletter.

The e-newsletter provides the community with valuable information about Council programs, services, news and events.

Narromine Shire Councils General Manager Jane Redden said "we have had over 400 people subscribe to the e-newsletter so far"

"Signing up to the e-newsletter is simple, just visit Council's website, scroll to the bottom and select sign up now."

"It is important that the community stays up-to-date with Council information including water restrictions, upcoming events and much more" she continued.

The newsletter can also be found on Council's website, on Council's social media channels, at the local libraries and Tomingley BP.
