

LIBRARY & INFORMATION WEEK

20–26 MAY 2019

The logo for TIK (Truth, Integrity, and Knowledge) is a large, stylized letter 'I' composed of three overlapping shapes: a teal triangle on the left, a green triangle on the right, and a red circle at the bottom. The letters 'TIK' are written in white, bold, sans-serif font across the red circle.

TIK

Library and information professionals promote Truth, Integrity and Knowledge

What's On

Celebrate Library & Information Week at Trangie Library

Australian Library and Information Association

MACQUARIE
REGIONAL LIBRARY

CELEBRATE LIBRARY & INFORMATION WEEK 2019

National Simultaneous Storytime

Wednesday 22 May, 11am - 12pm

Share in the fun of NSS with a special reading of Alpacas with Maracas, written and illustrated by Matt Cosgrove.

Fun Zone

Wednesday 22 May, 3.30pm - 4.30pm

Show off your creativity! Join us for art and craft activities for school-aged children.

Internet Basics Workshop

Thursday 23 May, 11am - 12pm

Navigating the internet can be tricky at first, but this workshop will teach you some essential skills to getting started online.

Robotics & Coding

Thursday 23 May, 2pm - 5pm

Try out some of the exciting new technologies on offer at the library including robots and Makey Makeys!

Open Day

Friday 24 May, All day

Drop in to enjoy a cup of tea and discover some of the great new services on offer including Kanopy film streaming.
